CHOTI CHIKKI BADA NUTRITION

High in PROTEIN

FIBRE

In India, chocolates were trained to mean celebration.

Wrapped in emotions, occasions, and unforgettable ad drama.

Loaded with sugar, yet everywhere—from school birthdays to secret adult bites.

So Troo Good flipped the script with India's first toffee chikkis—a smarter sweet for schools, families, and everyday moments.

Four variants—Sesame, Millet, Nuts & Seeds, Peanut. Small bite. Real sweet. Nutritious, guilt-free, deeply satisfying.

Our millet chikkis have been thoughtfully reimagined.

They bring together wholesome millets, generous portions of nutritious nuts, and pure jaggery.

The balance is intentional—more than 50% almonds and cashews, and 46% pistachio for rich, natural flavour.

The result is a deliciously crunchy bite that tastes indulgent yet remains nourishing. A simple combination, done right, for those who want real taste with real nutrition.

Most pistachio cookies in the market contain just 3–5% pistachio — the rest is flavour. Troo Good rewrote the rulebook with a pistachio chikki made from just 3 real ingredients.

46% real pistachio, balanced with pure jaggery and crisp millet goodness. No flavour masking. No dilution. Just the true taste of pista.

FIBRE

Troo Good introduced millet chikkis to the world for the first time. Until then, chikkis were limited to peanuts, rajgira, or crushed nut blends. This innovation rewrote both taste and nutrition in a traditional sweet. Clinically tested and proven to support height improvement in children, it delivers more than just flavour. An irresistible crunch, backed by real nutrition and real results.
