Founder

Mr. Raju Bhupati — Founder, TrooGood

Hailing from Amalapuram in Andhra Pradesh, Mr. Bhupati draws inspiration from his father's legacy of selfless service through free homeopathy and spiritual entrepreneurship. After a successful career in the US IT sector, where he served as the global delivery head of a prestigious firm, he embarked on a new entrepreneurial journey in 2012.

Driven by a desire to uplift nutritionally deprived communities, he set out to create highly affordable products made from millets. Combining a passion for taste and nutrition, Mr. Bhupati pioneered the creation of the first-ever Millet Chikki — a snack combining millets, peanuts, and jaggery that is both delicious and nutritious.
