Welcome to Troo Good - where nutritious products meet affordability for all!

Can you imagine enjoying nutritious snacks for just 5 Rupees? In a country where health and nutrition often seem like distant aspirations for millions Troo Good emerged on the scene in 2018 with a revolutionary vision.

Founded on the core principles of Taste, Affordability, and Nutrition, Troo Good began its journey by selling 4000 Millet Snacks daily. Fast forward to today, and we have proudly grown into India's largest Millet Snacks company, selling a staggering 2 million Millet chikkis and other Millet snacks every single day.

Our mission is simple yet profound: Nourish 1 Billion Indians . Join us in our quest to make nutritious living accessible to all. Welcome to Troo Good - where nutrition meets affordability, one snack at a time.

Meet the visionary behind the Millet Chikki revolution- Mr. Raju Bhupati, the founder of Troo Good.

Hailing from Amalapuram in Andhra Pradesh, Mr. Bhupati draws inspiration from his father's legacy of selfless service through free homeopathy and spiritual entrepreneurship. After a successful career in the US IT sector, where he served as the global delivery head of a prestigious firm, Mr. Bhupati embarked on a new journey in 2012.

Driven by a deep desire to uplift nutritionally deprived communities, he envisioned creating highly affordable products made from millets. With a passion for blending taste and nutrition, Mr. Bhupati pioneered the creation of the first-ever Millet Chikki. This revolutionary snack combines the goodness of millets, peanuts, and jaggery, making it not only delicious but also incredibly nutritious.
